

Confronting Racism on Campus and Beyond: The Role of Faculty Affairs

Friday, June 19, 2020, 2:00 - 3:00 pm ET

Dr. Ropers will share the view from the ground at the University of Minnesota following the killing of George Floyd -- not to provide answers, but to help us understand what it is like for faculty and faculty affairs leaders when your community and institution are undergoing such turmoil, and in this case, the impact of racism. What do we do as faculty leaders? What actions can we take to drive lasting change? We will follow Dr. Ropers' comments with moderated Q&A discussion.

Speaker:

Rebecca Ropers, Vice Provost for Faculty and Academic Affairs, University of Minnesota
