

BIFAD Side Event, World Food Prize

AGENDA

October 17,2017 | 1:00pm - 5:00pm CDT

Building an Evidence Base for Resilience Programming under the USG Global Food Security Strategy: Bridging the Gap Between Humanitarian and Development Assistance

View livestream recording

Des Moines Marriott Downtown, 2nd Floor, Iowa Ballroom Salons ABC

700 Grand Ave, Des Moines, IA 50309

1:00 pm	Opening remarks	Brady Deaton, Chancellor Emeritus, University of Missouri and Acting Chair, BIFAD
1:15 pm	BIFAD Award for Scientific Excellence	Gebisa Ejeta, Distinguished Professor of Agronomy, Purdue University, and BIFAD member
1:30 pm	Update on the US Government's Global Food Security Strategy	Beth Dunford, Assistant to the Administrator, Bureau for Food Security, USAID
1:45 pm	Break
2:00 pm	Overview of USAID Resilience Programming under the GFSS	Greg Collins, Director, Center for Resilience, USAID
2:30 pm	Expert Panel Discussion on the Emerging Evidence Base on Resilience	Greg Collins, Moderator

Objective: The panel will discuss state-of-the-art approaches to resilience measurement, as well as what the evidence tells us about sources of resilience that enable households and communities to maintain their food security in the face of recurrent shocks such as drought and—more broadly—to sustainably escape and remain out of poverty in the face of complex risks.

Tim Frankenberger, President and Co-Founder,
TANGO International

Nancy Mock, Associate Professor, School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine, Tulane University

Jon Kurtz, Senior Director of Research and Learning, Mercy Corps

4:00 pm	Discussion	Brady Deaton
5:00 pm	Adjourn	Brady Deaton