Association of Public and Land-grant Universities

APLU is a membership organization that fosters a community of university leaders collectively working to advance the mission of public research universities. The association’s membership consists of nearly 250 public research universities, land-grant institutions, state university systems, and affiliated organizations spanning across all 50 states, the District of Columbia, six U.S. territories, Canada, and Mexico.

The association and its members collectively focus on: increasing access, equity, completion, and workforce readiness; promoting pathbreaking scientific research; and bolstering economic and community engagement. Drawing on the powerful collective action of its members, APLU’s advocacy arm helps shape federal policy that maximizes the positive impact of public and land-grant universities.

APPLICATION & CONTRACT FOR SPONSORSHIP

Terms & Conditions
The Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, hereinafter referred to as APLU, is hereby authorized to use the name and logo of a sponsor during the APLU Annual Meeting, November 10–12, 2024, at the Hilton Orlando.

APLU reserves the right to prequalify all applicants for potential sponsor and partner agreements. The prequalification process seeks to ensure sponsors and partners meet the needs of APLU members and do not discriminate because of race, creed, national or ethnic origin, sex or disability.

1. PAYMENTS AND CANCELLATIONS. In applying for sponsorship, the Sponsor will submit full payment with the signed contract. In the event the Sponsor provides APLU with a written notice of cancellation for any unpublished advertisement by October 10, 2024, APLU shall have the right to retain 50 percent of such payment as a processing fee.

2. FAILURE TO HOLD EXPOSITION. In the event the meeting is canceled, sponsorship fees or deposits already made will be returned on a pro rata basis after all related expenses incurred by APLU through the date of cancellation have been met plus an administrative fee and overhead charges.

3. DISTRIBUTION OF MATERIALS. Exhibitors are permitted to distribute materials to meeting participants that are of nominal value. Exhibitors planning to distribute materials greater than a $10.00 value must submit to APLU a description of the item(s) to be given away for prior approval.

4. NO CASH PRIZES, PLEASE. All sponsors and exhibitors are also subject to the terms and conditions outlined in the APLU Policy on Corporate Sponsors & Exhibits. For additional sponsorship information please contact the APLU Sponsorship Team at sponsorship@aplu.org.

APLU Policy on Corporate Sponsors & Exhibits

I. PREFACE

The Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU) provides selected organizations and corporations with the opportunity to exhibit at its Annual Meeting. As part of that opportunity, exhibitors are given the opportunity for further exposure by buying advertising in the meeting materials, sponsoring meal events, etc. These funds defray a portion of expenses related to the APLU Annual Meeting.

The primary interests served by having a sponsorship program are: to provide an opportunity for corporations and organizations to demonstrate their interest in and support for the mission and services of APLU and of its members; and, through their financial support, to defray the costs associated with the Annual Meeting that otherwise would be borne by the attendees.

II. GENERAL GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR APLU EXHIBITORS

Sponsors and exhibitors at APLU’s Annual Meeting are provided the opportunity to demonstrate their strong support for the higher education community. APLU only accepts organizations and corporations that have goals consistent with APLU’s mission. APLU appreciates the commitment of its sponsors, which helps to ensure that APLU continues to deliver the highest quality programs to its members. The following principles serve to guide the relationship between APLU and its sponsors:

• APLU strives to provide meaningful recognition to those who sponsor its programs and services.
• APLU’s interactions with its sponsors/exhibitors are characterized by the same high degree of professionalism, quality, and service that it provides to and shares with its own members.
• APLU’s interactions with its sponsors/exhibitors are characterized by the same high degree of professionalism, quality, and service that it provides to and shares with its own members.
• APLU understands the desire on the part of sponsors/exhibitors to receive as much recognition as possible, but APLU respects its members first and foremost, and therefore retains the right to limit sponsor access to APLU members, including access to certain meeting sessions.
• Sponsorship/Exhibiting are completely independent of programmatic planning. In the few exceptions where speaking slots are part of sponsorship, sponsors are not allowed to use the time to sell any specific products or materials.
• APLU maintains strict and complete editorial control of all materials published in connection with sponsorship.
• APLU does not endorse any individual sponsor/exhibitor or its products and services. APLU acknowledges sponsorship participation publicly, but in ways that do not suggest or intend endorsement.
• APLU is accountable primarily to its members.
  ▶ Member objectives and directives, if they are ever in conflict with sponsor objectives, take precedence.
RELEVANCE TO APLU’S MISSION & PRIORITIES

• APLU seeks corporate support only for activities in connection with programs and initiatives that support APLU’s mission.
• Sponsors and exhibitors must be relevant to the APLU membership and acceptance of a proposal for sponsorship of any program or activity is at the discretion of APLU.
• APLU reserves the right to reject any sponsorship deemed inappropriate to, or inconsistent with, the mission of APLU. APLU further reserves the right to negotiate with any sponsor concerning any aspect of a proposed sponsorship and to decline sponsorship as it deems necessary.
• APLU may consult with members on an as-needed basis for their feedback on potential sponsors.

All sponsors and exhibitors are also subject to the terms and conditions outlined in the APLU Application and Contract for Sponsorships: Terms and Conditions.

CONSENT TO USE OF PHOTOGRAPHIC IMAGES

Registration and attendance at, or participation in, or sponsorship of APLU meetings and other activities constitutes an agreement by the registrant for APLU’s use and distribution (both now and in the future) of the registrant or attendee’s image or voice in photographs, videotapes, electronic reproductions and audiotapes of such events and activities.

APLU STATEMENT ON PREVENTING DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

Expectations for Participants in APLU Activities:
In order to provide a productive and safe work environment and foster the free exchange of ideas, APLU’s commitment to providing a harassment-free work environment extends to APLU meetings. Discrimination and harassment are prohibited in any APLU activity. This commitment applies to all participants in all settings and locations in which APLU committee meetings, workshops, and conferences are conducted where employees, volunteers, sponsors, vendors, and/or guests are present.

APLU requires its meeting participants to conduct themselves professionally and treat other participants with respect. Click here to read the full statement.

PRIVACY POLICY

APLU is committed to the protection and security of user data. This privacy policy covers individuals who visit our site, use our website for job postings, enroll in online courses, register for events, sign up for email notifications or newsletters, and/or participate in councils or commissions.

With whom is this data shared? All email address and phone data is private to APLU staff only. When relevant, we may share this data with other council or committee members for ease of communication. Event attendance lists with names, titles, and organizations may be made public. Click here to read the full policy.

Meeting inquiries should be directed to sponsorship@aplu.org.
See you next year in Philadelphia!
