

WHAT IS CII?

APLU's Commission on International Initiatives convenes senior international officers and other individuals who work on international efforts at APLU-member institutions. The Commission serves as a home for members to:

- Identify critical issues, gather information, and create opportunities for sharing knowledge related to comprehensive internationalization.
- Advise APLU on issues related to comprehensive internationalization.
- Work across institutions to foster the development of globally competent students, internationally engaged faculty, and institutions capable of addressing global challenges.

KEY WAYS TO ENGAGE

Supported by APLU's Office of International, Community, and Economic Engagement, members have numerous opportunities to engage with the Commission and connect with their colleagues from across North America.
