WELCOME!

To the 2020 Board on Human Sciences Award
Dr. Ronald B. Cox, Jr.
Professor and Cooperative Extension State Specialist at Oklahoma State University

2020 Outstanding Engagement Award Winner
MY STORY
Extension and Engagement

• Assessment of Hispanics in Oklahoma
  – Youth Development
  – Access to Resources
  – Social Isolation
• ¡Unidos Se Puede!
Unidos youth learning about career paths and life skills with community partners

AAON manufacturing

Tulsa Sheriff

Ag at Langston

Reality Check how to live on a budget!

Science at OSU
Co-Parenting for Resilience
Teaching Extension Educators about Co-Parenting for Resilience

The Co-Parenting for Resilience Team: Matt Brosi, Katey Masri & Ron Cox.

Use logical consequences:

- Children learn responsibility by connecting specific behaviors or actions to practical consequences.
- Doesn't eat all their dinner = no other dessert) until they finish.
- If you don't finish your homework = you lose the privilege to play video games.
- Doesn't arrive home by curfew = loses curfew privileges next week.
Recording for new audiences.

Co-Parenting for Resilience
3 Reasons Engagement is Essential

1. Provides a value-added service to the community.
2. Increases relevance of the higher education
3. Creates a pipeline of new students.

Helping an Unidos Student with Reality Check
Thank you

Cox Family
(from left to right: Mother Norelis, children Vivianna, Amber, Caleb, Scarlett, and Ron)
Undergraduate Research Mentor Award Winner

Dr. Antoinette M. Landor
Associate Professor, Millsap Professor of Diversity & Multicultural Studies and Co-Founder, Associate Director of the Center for Body Image Research & Policy (CBIRP)
My “Village”

Family, Extended Family & Sisterhood (Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated Sisters & The Links, Incorporated Sisters)
At Grambling State University, I was mentored by Dr. Stacey Duhon who directed the NIMH Career Opportunities in Research (COR) Program.
My Journey
(as an undergraduate student)

- At the University of Iowa, I was mentored by Dr. Anthony Paik who was my research mentor for the Summer Research Opportunities Program (SROP).
My Journey (as an undergraduate student)

- At the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, I was mentored by Dr. Patricia Parker who was my research mentor for the Moore Undergraduate Research Apprentice Program (MURAP).
Coming Full Circle

- My Research Lab
- My Mentoring Strategies
Undergraduate Research Lab Members
Coming Full Circle

• My Research Lab

• My Mentoring Strategies
Undergraduate Research Lab Members
Where Are They Now?: Undergraduate Students

The University of Texas at Austin
Arizona State University
Columbia University
Georgia State University
University of Illinois
University of Georgia
Texas Tech University
Ball State University
Saint Louis University
Thank You!!!

• To all of my mentees... thank you for all of the JOY you have brought to me!!!
The End: Take-Home Quote

Tell me and I forget, teach me and I may remember, involve me and I learn.

-Benjamin Franklin
2020 Ellen Swallow Richards Public Service Award

Shiretta Ownbey, Ph.D.
Professor and graduate coordinator at Oklahoma State University’s College of Education and Human Sciences
Center For Student Success Opening 2004
First Tradition Medallion Ceremony

Cowboy Luck ... Celebrate the Tradition
Connecting with students in their major and a trusted adult

Freshmen Reading Program
Attracting Students to Family & Consumer Sciences
2020 Lifetime Achievement Award Winner

Dr. Virginia Clark Johnson, Dean Emeritus of the College of Human Sciences and Education at North Dakota State University and past BoHS Chair
Hiking with her husband, Rick
Family Time at the Lake
(Daughter, granddaughter, son- in-law and husband)
With the Advisory board of the College
Virginia Clark Johnson & Rick Johnson Scholarship
Q&A
Thank you for attending the 2020 BoHS Award Celebration!