Dear Acting Secretary Wolf and Acting Regulatory Unit Chief Hageman:

We write today on behalf of the undersigned organizations to request that you extend the current 30-day comment period for the September 25, 2020, proposed rule on “Establishing a Fixed Time Period of Admission and an Extension of Stay Procedure for Nonimmigrant Academic Students, Exchange Visitors, and Representatives of Foreign Information Media” (DHS Docket No. ICEB-2019-0006) to a minimum of 60 days.

Setting such a brief comment period for a complicated proposed rule is an unreasonably compressed time for affected constituencies to assess, discuss, and meaningfully respond regarding the impact on higher education institutions and our international students. As you are aware, there are currently over 1 million international students and scholars in the United States. These students and scholars contribute greatly to the U.S. economy, as well as the education and research enterprise that helps drive American innovation and industry. The proposed rule would impose complicated new requirements not only on current students striving to navigate their postsecondary education during a global pandemic, but also on future students.

In addition, because of the global pandemic, colleges and universities are working hard to adjust campus operations to enable variations of in-person, blended, and online education, while supporting the health and safety of our students, faculty, and staff. This further underscores that a 30-day period does not allow for a careful analysis to understand and comment on the proposed rule. Given the extraordinary impact of COVID-19 and the complexity of the proposed rule, we respectfully request that DHS extend the comment period to at least 60 days.

Sincerely,

Ted Mitchell, President
