

The background of the slide features a semi-transparent maroon overlay. In the background, a large, multi-story university building with several towers is visible. In the foreground, two students are sitting on a ledge, facing each other and talking. The overall scene is dimly lit, suggesting an evening or dusk setting.

Food Access and Equity at Virginia Tech: Reports and Students Generate Action

Susan Sumner

February 6, 2020

Examples of Activities and Impacts on the Virginia Tech Campus

- Campus Kitchen
(Partnership with VT Engage and Virginia Tech Dining Services, 2015)
- 209 Manna Ministries
(Founded in 2013)
- Big Event
- Student-led food drives
(Service projects in first year experience courses)

└

DEEPEN UT PROSIM (THAT I MAY SERVE)

“Virginia Tech is committed to the wellbeing of every student on our campus and recognizes the importance of students having access to an adequate and well-balanced diet.” Cyril Clark, executive vice president and provost.

Food Access and Security Study

Report aimed at documenting food security and access among Virginia Tech students

Graduate Student Initiatives

Created Access for Students, a volunteer group to provide students in need with cash cards

Formation of university committee

Dean of students is chairing a newly formed committee

Research projects

Graduate students in many departments across campus are focusing their thesis and dissertation research of food security